

EGA POLICY STATEMENT MEMBERSHIP PROTECTION

EGA Policy Name: Membership Protection Policy

Date of Issue: November 2018

Policy Coverage: All management, Athletes,

Members & Staff Controlling Body: EGA Directors

1. POLICY STATEMENT

EGA is committed to providing a sport and work environment free of discrimination and harassment (sexual or otherwise), where individuals are treated with respect and dignity. The Association will not tolerate discriminatory or harassment behaviour under any circumstances and will take disciplinary action against anyone who breaches this Policy.

1.2 EGA is committed to ensuring that the safety, welfare and wellbeing of children are maintained at all times during their participation in activities run by the club and its member bodies.

Accordingly, any person involved in the instruction, management or coaching of any member under the age of 18 years may be asked to undergo screening procedures including police and other probity checks.

2. POLICY APPLICATION

2.1 This Policy applies to all members of the club, employees, officers, administrators, volunteers, coaches, judges, athletes and officials (Members).

2.2 This Policy applies equally to Members involved in each of the clubs gymnastics disciplines, including Men's Artistic Gymnastics, Women's Artistic Gymnastics, Rhythmic Gymnastics, General Gymnastics, Pre School Gymnastics, Cheerleading and dance.

2.3 This Policy applies to behaviour occurring both within and outside the course of the clubs business, activities and events, when the behaviour involves Members and negatively affects relationships within the clubs sport and work environment.

3. POLICY COVERAGE

3.1 Discrimination and all forms of harassment are unlawful under federal, state and territory law. People engaging in such conduct can have legal action taken against them under these laws. In some cases, legal action can also be taken against the organisation for which they work or represent. For this reason, the club has a legal responsibility to ensure that discrimination or harassment does not occur in the course of any of the clubs activities.

3.2 The law is always the minimum standard for behaviour within the club and therefore any criminal offence will be reported to the appropriate authorities.

Discrimination

3.3 It is unlawful to treat anyone unfairly on the basis of various attributes or personal characteristics in key areas of public life.

3.4 A Member must not treat a person less favourably than another person on the basis of an attribute (such as race, sex, age, marital status, sexuality, pregnancy or intellectual or physical impairment) than someone else without that attribute in the same or similar circumstances.

3.5 Indirect discrimination is also unlawful. This means that a Member cannot impose a requirement, condition or practice that is the same for everyone, but which has an unequal or disproportionate effect or result on particular groups. Unless this type of requirement is reasonable in all the circumstance it is likely to be indirect discrimination, even if there was never any intention to discriminate. Harassment

3.6 Harassment can take many forms but can generally be defined as unwelcome verbal or written comments, conduct, or gestures directed toward an individual or group of individuals that the harasser knows, or should reasonably be expected to know, is insulting, intimidating, humiliating, malicious, degrading or offensive.

3.7 Sexual harassment is behaviour that has a sexual element that is unwelcome and could reasonably be expected, in the circumstances, in which it occurs, to offend, humiliate or intimidate the person or people at whom it is directed.

3.8 A Member must not engage in any form of harassment, including:

- written, verbal or physical abuse or threats;
- unwelcome physical contact;
- the display of offensive materials;
- promises or threats in return for sexual favours;
- unwelcome sexual comments, jokes or propositions;
- homophobic comments or behaviours; or
- jokes or comments directed at a person's body, looks, age, race, disability, sexuality, marital status or pregnancy. Anti-Discrimination EGA opposes all forms of harassment, discrimination and bullying.

This includes treating or proposing to treat someone less favourably because of a particular characteristic; imposing or intending to impose an unreasonable requirement, condition or practice which has an unequal or disproportionate effect on people with a particular characteristic; or any behaviour that is offensive, abusive, belittling, intimidating or threatening – whether this is face-to-face, indirectly or via communication technologies such as mobile phone and computers.

Some forms of harassment, discrimination and bullying, based on personal characteristics such as those listed in the Dictionary at clause 10, are against the law. If any person feels they are being harassed or discriminated against by another person or organisation bound by this policy, please refer to our complaints procedure outlined in attachment D1 of this Policy. This will explain what to do about the behaviour and how GA will deal with the problem.

Intimate Relations

3.9 The club takes the view that intimate sexual relationships between coaches and athletes, while not necessarily constituting unlawful harassment, can have harmful effects on the individual athlete involved, on other athletes and coaches, and on the sport's public image.

3.10 Because there is always a risk that the relative power of the coach has been a factor in the development of such relationships, the club takes the position that such relationships should be avoided by coaches working at all levels.

3.11 Should a sexual relationship develop between an athlete and a coach, the club will investigate whether any action against the coach is necessary. If the Association determines that the sexual relationship is inappropriate, action may be taken to terminate the coaching relationship with the athlete. Action may include transfer of the coach or, if this is not feasible, a request for resignation or dismissal from employment or coaching duties.

3.12 In the event that an athlete attempts to initiate an intimate sexual relationship, the coach must take personal responsibility for discouraging such approaches, explaining the ethical basis for such action.

3.13 The law is always the minimum standard for behaviour within the club and therefore sex with a minor, of either the same or the opposite sex, is a criminal offence and will be reported to the appropriate authorities. Victimisation

3.14 Club must not subject any person to victimisation.

3.15 Victimisation means subjecting a person, or threatening to subject a person, to any detriment or unfair treatment because that person has or intends to pursue his or her right to make a complaint or support another person in making a complaint against another person. Child Protection

3.16 Club must not employ or engage a person (whether paid or unpaid) to coach or otherwise supervise a child under the age of 18 years without first:

(a) requiring that person to disclose whether or not he or she has been convicted of a serious sex offence; and

(b) conducting a police or other appropriate probity check on that person.

3.17 Club must notify the appropriate authorities (such as the Commission for Children and Young People) of:

(a) any applicants for employment that the club rejected as a result of risks identified through screening processes; and

(b) the name and other identifying details of any person against whom relevant disciplinary proceedings have been completed by the club in relation to child abuse (sexual or otherwise) irrespective of the findings.
